

For the month of April, we have decided to forego the more typical issue of the Snags & Snarls newsletter. The primary reason for this decision is in honor of all of the hard work and efforts of our editor, Jim Hoskinson. Jim has done a terrific job in making the PCTU newsletter the excellent publication that it is today.

Unfortunately, Jim has suffered a recent medical setback. Jim was scheduled to undergo the next round of treatment for his cancer. When he went in for his pre-op physical, an additional problem was discovered, requiring major heart surgery. Jim is still fighting very hard to overcome this recent hurdle.

Out of respect for Jim, his wife, and his family, we are asking that people refrain from calling Jim's house directly. If you would like to send him a card or a note, please feel free to send that message to his home address at: 58 Bunker Ct. Mills River, NC 28759.

Please keep Jim in your thoughts and prayers at this time. We will keep you posted as to the status of his situation as soon as it is available.
